

Barbara Carnley Is Bride Of William David McAdam

Miss Barbara Ann Carnley and William David McAdam were married at 10:30 a. m. Saturday in Sacred Heart Catholic Church in a setting of white gladioli and chrysanthemums with green palms. The Rev. Fr. Alexander McKeown performed the Nuptial Mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Carnley of 815 N. 15th Ave.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McAdam of 1920 E. Hatton St.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of antique satin with inlays of lace and seed pearls. The scooped neckline was accented by an inlay of embroidered lace and seed pearls. The chapel train was held to a crown of pearls and crystals. She carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Frank Conti. Bridesmaids were Miss Sandee Sullivan and Miss Judy Carter.

The matron of honor wore a floor length dress of champagne antique satin with a waist inset of French imported lace. The bridesmaids' dresses were of pale yellow along the same lines as that worn by the matron of honor. They wore pillbox hats which held matching circular veils. Each carried long-stemmed chrysanthemums.

E. H. McAdam Jr. attended his brother as best man. Groomsmen were T. W. McAdam and Carl Allen Carnley. William Carnley and Peter McAdam were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Carnley wore a pale blue whipped cream sheath enhanced with a scalloped lace overblouse. She wore blue accessories.

Mrs. McAdam wore a pink batiste sheath reembroidered with white. Both mothers carried white orchids.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Pensacola Women's Club. Presiding at the bride's book was Mrs. T. W. McAdam.

For a wedding trip to Key West, the bride wore a tailored suit of pink linen with white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The newlyweds will reside at 1301 E. Blount St.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McAdam of North Brook, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McAdam and twin daughters, Lisa and Linda, of St. Albans, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. T. W. McAdam and children of Daytona Beach; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Faticoni of Key West.
