

CAROLYN CHRISTINE (BRIDGES) CLEMENTS

March 25, 1942 - April 30, 2008

Carolyn Christine Bridges Clements, 66, a life long resident of Pensacola, was born into Eternal Life on April 30th, 2008. She was born on March 25th, 1942 to Herbert and Gladys Bridges. She was a graduate of Pensacola High School and Pensacola Junior College. She was married in 1962, and gave birth to her only child in August 1963. A single mother by 1965, She worked at N.A.S. Pensacola in various capacities until retiring as a Budget analyst in the fall of 1997. She enjoyed Sewing, making many clothes for both her son and her granddaughter. She also enjoyed board games, Crossword and Jigsaw puzzles, the rodeo and bull riding, and Dancing with the Stars. She was devoted to her sheltie, Prince and enjoyed meeting new people and engaging them in conversation. A lover of porcelain flowers and classic movies, she also was well traveled visiting Europe and many scenic locations of the United States. She enjoyed gardening, and was well known for her green thumb and ability to grow beautiful roses.

Her parents preceded her in death in the mid-1980's and she is survived by her son and daughter in law, Will and Christina Clements, and her granddaughter, Jessica Kay Clements, all of Hampton Georgia, and Sister and Brother in Law, Dorothy and Robert Corbett, Sister and Brother in Law, Shirley and Charles Rettew, Niece and Nephew in Law, Elizabeth and Steven Steck, and grand nieces, Katherine and Lindsey Steck, all of Pensacola Florida. Also survived by Niece and Nephew in Law, Linda and Daniel Kirk, and grand nieces Katie and Kelley Kirk, all of The Woodlands Texas and Maternal Aunt and Uncle Willodene and Noble Warfield of Hopkinsville, Kentucky, and many cousins too numerous to mention. The Family will receive friends and relatives at the Little Flower School Hall Saturday, May 31st, 2008 from 10:00-11:00am. A Memorial Mass celebrating her Life will begin at 11:00am, at Little Flower Catholic Church with Reverend Eugene Casserly officiating. Internment of her ashes will be at Bayview Memorial Cemetery immediately following the Mass.

In lieu of flowers, her family requests donations be made in her honor to Her Granddaughters School, St. John the Evangelist Catholic School, 240 Arnold Street, Hapeville Georgia, 30354. The Family wishes to convey their sincerest appreciation to all those who cared for her during her extended illness at Sacred Heart Hospital and Select Specialty Hospital, both in Pensacola. We also wish to thank them for the kindness shown to the Family during this time.
