

DELORES MAE (BAGGETT) BARNETT

“Dee”

July 1, 1942 - March 14, 1998

Delores B. Barnett, 55, of Clear Springs, Ala., died Saturday, March 14, 1998, in a local hospital following a 2 ½ year battle with cancer.

Mrs. Barnett was a member of Clear Springs United Methodist Church; past Treasurer of Alabama-West Florida Conference United Methodist Women; former Choir Director and a Sunday School Teacher.

She was preceded in death by her father, James L. Baggett, Jr. and brother , James L. Baggett III.

Survivors include her husband, John E. Barnett, Sr.; sons and daughters, John E. Barnett, Jr. and Missy; TSGT USAF Jeffrey L. Barnett and Pamela and Jerry D. Barnett and Shannon; two granddaughters; and six grandsons; mother, Marcha C. Baggett; and sisters and brothers, Rev. R. T. and Sandra Vaughan, Tim and Beverly Maddox, Patsy Baggett, Gary and Brenda Baggett, Janie and Garry Quick, Sue and Ed Lane, Charlie and Janice Barnett, George and Anita Barnett, Jimmy and Brenda Barnett and Gene and Debra Barnett.

Funeral Services will be held at 10 a.m., Tuesday in Clear Springs United Methodist Church, Clear Springs, Ala. With the Rev. George Weaver and the Rev. Terry Vaughan officiating.

Burial will be in the church cemetery. Pallbearers will be Phillip Vaughn, James L. Barnett, IV, James Perry, Josh Baggett, Montie Barnett, Mike Barnett, Robby Barnett and Heath Lane. Honorary pallbearers will be the Clear Springs Church Choir.

Faith Chapel Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. Family will receive flowers or you may make memorial contributions to Clear Springs United Methodist Church.

The family would like to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to Dr. Frank Greskovich, Sr., Dr. Tom Williams, Dr. Roberto Maal, Dr. Allen Patten, Dr. Jack Lurton, Dr. Sidney Clements and Dr. William Whibbs; and to the wonderful nursing and professional care Dee received at Baptist Hospital.