

Mrs. Louise Mackey Fitzpatrick, 62, of 1432 Lemhurst Drive, died Monday in a local hospital. She was the wife of the late Lt. Cmdr., USN James F. Fitzpatrick, Jr. and the daughter of the late W. C. Mackey and Sarah Riddick Mackey of Pensacola.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick was a native and a lifelong resident of Pensacola and was a former school teacher of English at both Pensacola and Escambia High School. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church and was active in several local civic and social organizations.

Other survivors include her son, James F. Fitzpatrick III of Nashville, Tenn; a daughter, Johanna Habisreitinger of Lacombe, La.; two sisters, Elizabeth M. Bell and Marjorie M. Hart, both of Pensacola and a brother, the Rev J. Robert Mackey of St. Petersburg.

Funeral services will be 10:30 a.m. Wednesday in the First United Methodist church with the Rev. Robert Dickerson and the Rev. Powers McLeod officiating.

Graveside services will be for the family at the Roberts Cemetery in Gonzalez. Visitation at Chapel of the Good Shepherd at First Methodist church from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday and from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. Wednesday.

Pallbearers will be H. H. Barton, Marco White, Judge Bernard Reynolds, Edgar Smith, Hall Waller and Pat Groner.

The family requests that contributions be made to the American Cancer Society.

Fisher-Pou Funeral Home directing.