

Frances Carol Holland Weds Wayne E. Doyle

Garlands of greenery and arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums enhanced the First Methodist Church Saturday at 4 p.m. when marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Frances Carole Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bartley Holland, 1310 N. 15th Ave., and Wayne Ellis Doyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Doyle, Hickory Shores, Gulf Breeze. Dr. Paul Andrews Duffey officiated.

Jack Morrison, organist, and Dr. Jack Warren Fleming, soloist, presented traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor length white silk organza gown fashioned in a princess silhouette. Re-embroidered Alencon lace studded in seed pearls trimmed the scooped neckline, brief sleeves and back, which ended in a chapel train. She wore a small tiara of seed pearls from which extended a finger tip veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a white Bible topped with white roses and an orchid.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Jane Dobbins. She was attired in a street length sheath with a bell shaped overskirt of blue peau de soie featuring a scooped neckline and elbow sleeves, matching shoes and a velvet rose with face veil.

Similar gowns were worn by bridesmaids, Miss Sally Weatherbee, Miss Sue Jackson, Miss Pat Vandegriff of Fort Walton Beach, and Miss Elizabeth Thomas of Dothan, Ala., cousin of the bride. They carried cascades of peacock feathers, emerald green carnations and Fiji chrysanthemums.

Ring bearers were David Patrick Yarnall and George Adolph Soule IV. Acolytes were Gordon Doyle and Miss Jane Peaden.

The bridegroom chose his father, William Henry Doyle as best man. Groomsmen were Gillis Mellen, Robert Stacey, David Eubanks, and Dr. James Sutton of Fort Walton Beach.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Holland chose a teal blue silk crepe sheath with matching accessories. Mrs. Doyle wore a beige brocade sheath with matching accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Guests were registered by Miss Pamela Peaden and Miss Jean Thomas.

For a wedding trip along the Gulf Coast to New Orleans, the bride wore a cranberry silk ensemble trimmed in black braid, a black broad-brimmed beaver hat, black kid accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The newlyweds will reside in Dover, Del., where Mr. Doyle is stationed with the United States Air Force.
